About me

I am an English teacher and teacher trainer based in Barcelona, with extensive international experience in the field of education. I apply a student-centred approach, transforming language learning into a practical, dynamic, and empowering experience.

My background in Business and International Law enables me to deliver specialised Business English training and provide support for professional projects requiring effective communication in international contexts. This includes the preparation of presentations, conferences, meetings, and negotiations across a range of sectors, including legal and medical fields.

I combine linguistic expertise with a strong understanding of professional environments, ensuring that learners develop both confidence and precision in their use of English.

Vision

To empower professionals and educators to communicate confidently and effectively in English, enabling them to succeed in international environments and unlock new global opportunities.

Mission

To deliver high-quality, student-centred language training that is practical, personalised, and results-driven. Through a combination of linguistic expertise and real-world application, the aim is to support learners in developing the skills needed to perform successfully in professional and specialised contexts, including business, legal, and medical fields.

Services

A range of tailored English language services designed to meet both professional and personal communication goals. These include English for Specific Purposes (ESP) sessions focused on real-world professional communication, interactive workshops targeting key professional skills, and Social Speaking sessions in both General and Business English to build confidence, fluency, and natural interaction in a variety of contexts.

ESP English

English for Specific Purposes. Tailored one-to-one or small group sessions focused on developing effective communication skills for the workplace. Lessons are adapted to specific professional needs, in different areas of expertise, such as Business, Medical, Pharma, Financial, or Legal.

Workshops

Interactive and practical workshops designed to strengthen key professional skills in English. I offer different workshops focused in Business skills, job interview workshop and teacher training. All workshops are hands-on and focus on real-life scenarios, with a strong emphasis on participation and immediate application.

Social Speaking

Dynamic speaking sessions aimed at improving fluency, confidence, and natural communication. Through guided conversations and engaging topics, participants develop the ability to express themselves clearly in both social and professional contexts.

Achieve your goals in English

I'll help you communicate confidently in English, whether it's for professional meetings, presentations, workshops, or everyday conversations. Together, we'll build the skills you need to succeed and make your ideas heard in any context.
